CONSTITUTION OF THE COLORED WESTERN DISCIPLES OF CHRIST ASSEMBLY.

Article 1. This organization shall be known as the Colored Western Disciples of Christ Assembly of North Carolina.

Art. 2. Its object shall be to devise ways and means for the spread of the Gospel in all the world.

Art. 3. Its members shall consist of Preachers and members who have been sent as delegates to the Assembly.

Art. 4. Its officers shall consist of a Chief, Vice-Chief, Scribe, Assistant Scribe, Treasurer, and such other officers as may be necessary for its existence.

Art. 5. The Chief shall preside over the Assembly and Union meetings during the year in which he is elected, unless he is Providentially hindered, at which time the Assistant Chief shall be supreme presider.

Art. 6. The Treasurer shall hold all monies belonging to the Assembly and Union meetings aside from the current expenses, paying it out only as directed by an order signed by the Chief, the Scribe and one other Counsellor.

Art. 7. It shall be the duty of the Finance Committee to collect all funds belonging to the Assembly and pay them to the Treasurer.

Art. 8. The Committee on Preaching shall appoint preachers to preach in the Assembly and Union meetings; and notify them of their appointment.

Art. 9. The Committee on Ministerial Characters shall investigate the morality of all ministers belonging to the Assembly and report the same to the Executive Board.

Art. 10. The Grievance Committee shall investigate all matters of a grievous nature and report the same to the Assembly.

Art. 11. The Committee on Permanent Organization shall nominate a Chief, Assistant Chief, Scribe, and Assistant Scribe; and report the same to the Assembly.

Art. 12. It shall be the duty of the Committee on Order of Business to specify the time of convening, adjourning, quorum for the transaction of business. times of speaking, length of time of speaking, fines, etc.

Art. 13. The Committee on New Churches shall investigate all new churches, if any, and report the same to the Assembly.

Art. 14. It shall be the duty of the Committee on Education to devise ways and means by which to aid the young ministers who desire to go to school.

Art. 15. The Committee on Eulogy shall investigate and report the number of members died in the various churches during the year and report the same to the Assembly.

Art. 16. There shall be elected annually a Chief and an Assistant Chief who shall hold their offices until their successors are elected. It shall be the duty of the Chief to preside over the Assembly, look over all the general affairs and important business of all the churches belonging to the Assembly, making such recommendations as he may deem consistent to good church government.

Art. 17. It shall be the duty of the Chief to examine all applicants who may apply for examination.

Art. 18. The Chief shall preside over all ministerial trials giving judgment for or against an accused according to the evidence, which judgment shall be final, unless the accused appeal to the Union meeting or Assembly for a new trial, which shall be granted; and the Chief shall have at least ten days notice and the nature of the case before trying an accused.

Art. 19. The Pastor in charge of churches shall have power to call any two ordained brethren they choose at the trial of a deacon; but deacons may be members, whose trial shall be presided over by the pastor unless otherwise provided by an agreement of pastor and deacon.

Art. 20. If any church shall become vacant for Pastor by death or otherwise the deacon of said Church shall notify the Chief of said vacancy, whose duty it shall be to appoint a preacher to fill said vacancy until the next Assembly.

Art. 21. Each local church may send as many delegates to the Assembly ss they deem proper, but each delegate shall have $3.00 to attend the Assembly; and $2.00 each to attend the Union meeting; but these fees must be raised at the church that sends them.

Art. 22. There shall be one Union meeting; and one Elders and Deacons meeting per year. The Assembly shall locate the first one, and that one shall locate the next one.

Art. 23. Each Church shall assess its members sufficient to run its own government; and make the assessment known on the first preaching Sunday in the Assembly year.

Art. 24. The New Testament shall be our creed, faith, law, guide, doctrine and practice; any departure therefrom shall make a preacher or other officers subject to indictment.

Art. 25. If at any time, it is personally known to any deacon or preacher of our faith that the Chief is not living or walking in Gospel order, said deacon or preacher shall report the same to the Assistant Chief, who shall call two other preachers whom he may choose, to try the case, first giving the Chief ten days notice and the nature of the case; in such trial the judgment of the Assistant Chief, for or against him, shall be final; provided the Chief doesn't appeal to the Assembly for a new trial.

Art. 26. All ministers and deacons shall stand trial at their mother church, and not at the Union meeting or Assembly, because evidence for or against him can be better obtained at the mother church than elsewhere.

Art. 27. The 18th chapter of St. Matthew is our standpoint for the trial of members and deacons; but it must be borne in mind that public offenses cannot be decided by that chapter.

Art. 28. Preachers and delegates are the law making power of the Assembly, which makes them members of the Assembly; and every member of the Assembly must be subject to the action of the Assembly; or be considered a misdemeanor.

Art. 29. Each local church is a daughter of the Assembly, while all the pastors of churches are husbands or fathers of their churches, the deacons being elder sons of their fathers and family.

Art. 30. All public collections raised at the Union meetings, or enough thereof, shall be used to discharge any indebtedness of the Union meetings.

Art. 31. Every Church shall represent in the Union meeting with 20 cents per member, three cents of which shall be used as Superannuated funds.

Art. 32. All public collections raised at the Assembly shall be equally divided among the ministers present belonging to the Assembly.

Art. 33. Delegates to the Annual Assembly are delegates to the Union meetings during the year in which they are elected.

Art. 34. Every Church shall represent in the Annual Assembly with 50 cents to the member; 5 cents of which shall be used as Superannuated funds; and 10 cents to aid the Chief in his traveling expenses in visiting the various churches of the Assembly during the year.

Art. 35. The Chief shall attend all the Union meetings to examine all applicants for the ministry who may apply for the same.

Art. 36. Applicants must go to the Union meetings or Assembly for examination. unless the Pastor of the church to which the applicant belongs shall send for the Chief to come for same at any Quarterly Conference.

Art. 37. Every preacher in charge of one church shall pay to the Assembly an annual assessment of $2.50. Ministers in charge of two or more churches shall pay $1.75 for each church; Ordained Ministers not in charge of a church shall pay $2.50; Local Preachers $2.00 each; and represent in the Union meetings with 50 cents each.

Art. 38. Every Deacon shall represent in the Annual Assembly with $1.50, and in the Union meetings with 35 cents; Delegates who are not Deacons shall represent in the Annual Assembly with 75 cents; and in the Union meetings with 25 cents.

Art. 39 No minister shall be ordained to the Gospel work unless he can make Elders' License.

Art 40. Deacons shall be ordained by the Pastor in charge and whosoever he may choose, unless he choose the Chief to do so.

Art. 41. Any minister coming from other religious faith to this Assembly shall not be licensed under 12 months from the ensuing Assembly, unless he join at an Assembly; and shall not pastor a church under two years from the time he joins the Assembly.

Art. 42. Every minister shall present his license on the second day of the Assembly to the Chief of the Assembly, who shall hold the same until he hears the report of the Committee on Ministerial Character.

Art. 43. All ministers coming from other Assemblies of the same faith shall bring a letter of recommendation from said Assembly signed by the Executive Board and Scribe of said Assembly.

Art. 44. Any minister failing to attend the Union meeting or Assembly, shall pay 25 cents for each meeting missed, unless they render satisfactory excuses.

Art. 45. Members of the same faith or Assembly, moving from one church to another shall carry a letter of recommendation from the church from which they come.

Art 46. Any minister or deacon caught in the act of fornication, shall be silenced not less than two months, nor more than two years.

Art. 47. Any Article in this Constitution may be amended at any Annual Assembly by a vote of a majority of the members present.
